Dr. Riccardo Picasso was born in 1990 in Genoa, Italy. He graduated in medicine in 2015 and became a specialist in Radiology in 2020 at the University of Genoa. He is registered with the Italian board of Medicine since 2016 (registration number: 16618). He is currently working as staff Radiologist at the Emergency Radiology Unit of the University-Hospital IRCCS Policlinico San Martino of Genoa, Italy. He is also completing the 3rd year of the PhD program Biotechnology in Translational Medicine at the Department of Experimental Medicine of the University of Genoa. Since his residency, he has been actively involved in research and education in the field of Musculoskeletal Imaging and to date he has published more than 30 scientific articles in international peer reviewed medical journals. He has participated to several international congresses and courses as invited faculty, including the European Society of Musculoskeletal Radiology – ESSR and the European Federation of Societies for Ultrasound in Medicine and Biology – EFSUMB annual meetings. He is an active member of the Italian society of Radiology – SIRM, European Society of Radiology – ESR, and European Society of Musculoskeletal Radiology – ESSR, in this latter case being also involved in the Ultrasound Subcommittee.